Conclusion

Beyond the above decrypted scholarship packages the Approved Training Organization Fas Pilot Academy do not provide any other financial support.

The scholarship committee checks the performance of the applicants through specific procedures which the committee has defined. The committee has the right to decide the withdrawal or the termination of the scholarship whenever they decide that there are serious reasons (mostly referring to the performance, the ethos, the righteousness, the financial situation of the applicant, etc), which enforce it or are not followed the terms and conditions of the training agreement.

The scholarship committee preserves the right to approve the granting of scholarships to students of excellent performance without their participation to the above mentioned trials and contests, assuming they have been rewarded from international competition committees.

For any other issues, which may come up during the implementation of the scholarship and are not mentioned in this announcement will be resolved by the scholarship committee.

The committee reserves the right to amend the terms and regulations of the scholarship at any time.

On behalf of the Scholarships Committee,
Dr. Dimitrios Kostopoulos
Head of Training according to the EASA regulations
